Edition

Welcome to the sixth edition of the Vinyl Siding Institute's (VSI) Certified Installer E-News. Note that all official communications continue to come from Karen Yetter at ATI at kyetter@archtest.com.

New! Spanish-language version of the VSI Vinyl Siding Installation Manual? The new Spanish-language version of the VSI Vinyl Siding Installation Manual is now available! Please visit the VSI website to download your copy today!

Free VSI Vinyl Siding Installation Manuals Were Sent to the First 2,000 Certified Installers Didn't get yours? Free copies of the updated VSI Vinyl Siding Installation Manual were sent in 2008. If you didn't get one, be sure to please contact ATI with your correct mailing and email addresses so you can have the most up-to-date information to use on your recertification examination.

Don't Forget to Recertify! Recertification deadlines are fast approaching! Remember, your certification expires three years from your initial certification. Contact ATI to apply and for your open-book recertification examination, and return the test to ATI by your expiration date to remain on the Official Registry of Certified Installers! For any questions on recertification or to report any mailing or email address changes, please contact Karen Yetter of ATI at kyetter@archtest.com.

Certified Installer Webpage Continues to Be Updated Have you checked the Certified Installer Resources page on the VSI website for information to help you get your next job? Do you know what makes vinyl siding green? There's a lot more there to help you installer better and show why your Certified Installer status differentiates you as the best.
